

I hope you will reconsider deregulating the print and broadcast media. I believe this deregulation will cause less news to be disseminated to an already news-starved public. This is not what we need, especially today, when thoughtful, intelligent discourse is needed. Thank you for your consideration.